

HEAD OF ECOMMERCE

We are looking for a person to head up our expanding international e-commerce team. A highly energetic professional, you will be working in a fast-paced environment, where self-motivation and a targets-driven mentality are a must. This is a management role in the e-commerce team, and as a brand ambassador for Ganni, you will be passionate about the brand and our goals. We are a growing fashion business and you will need the ability to think creatively and have the confidence to express your ideas. Where full deployment is key to controlling our commercial roll out, this is how we secure maximum impact - and we need you to be 100 percent committed. The role reports to the COO, and will ideally be located at Ganni's headquarters in Copenhagen (although this may be negotiable). The position is full time, and will be filled immediately.

- Strong leadership skills, with the ability and experience of building an international team of strong individuals with a keen focus on operations
- Strategic planning resulting in sustainable growth across an international marketplace
- Ability to plan long term and globally while reacting within the hour, locally.
- Hitting revenue targets and achieving continuous growth within designated markets.
- Coordinating and executing best practice e-commerce operations.
- Reacting to performance on an hour to hour basis.
- Enforcing the brand message as a key component to reaching targets and running the daily operations.
- Analysing internal and external data, and gathering market information.

The Ideal Candidate:

- Comes from a management position with experience of running an international e-commerce team
- Strong e-commerce operations skills - ideally from a brand in a related industry or high-end multi-brand environments.
- Numerical and analytical competencies.
- Proven track record of developing creative solutions within a rapidly developing market.
- A great eye for detail.
- Team player mentality.
- Gets a kick out of exceeding targets.
